Counting Blessings

We need a little cheerfulness
Whatever comes along,
We need a ray of hopefulness
If things are going wrong.
The many simple things in life
Are so important, too,
A comfy chair, a cosy bed,
Just right for me and you.
A loving word, a friendly call
Can have a happy touch,
Don't ever take for granted
The things which mean so much.
As we go forward week by week,
Let's make another start,
For counting blessings, every day
Can lift and warm the heart.
